

Breifing on the training

The Grenada sports and wellbeing foundation athletic club is a program designed to develop and prepare young athletes mentally and physically to strive for thier goals. This program started on Monday 2nd March 2020.The club started off with only two athletes and has expanded rapidly to eight members all of different ages

This program is designed to reach each and every athlete needs while having fun in the process.

Last modified: 10:24 a.m.